

Jaewon Choi

Executive Director, DMUN Foundation

Mr. Jaewon Choi is a high school student at Phillips Academy Andover. He is also a social entrepreneur and youth activist that serves as the Founder & Executive Director of the DMUN Foundation, a youth-led non-profit civil society organisation that educates youths about international relations, political science, sustainability, and activism. His Foundation has already provided programs on education to over 18,000 youths across the world, and is operating one of the largest youth-led Model United Nations conferences in the world. Mr. Choi has also been focused on integrating youths into the United Nations System, attending UN engagements such as a COP28 and the Civil Society Conference to advocate for greater inclusion of youth-led civil society and youths into the United Nations deliberations.