

Karen Davtyan

Karen Davtyan is a professional with a background in linguistics and tourism. He holds a degree from Yerevan Brusov State University of Languages and Social Sciences, where he developed a deep understanding of languages and social dynamics.

Karen began his career in the tourism sector, gaining valuable experience as a Team Leader at the Armenian branch of Holiday Factory, a prominent tour agency based in UAE. His role involved managing and coordinating travel operations, ensuring exceptional customer service, and promoting tourism opportunities in Armenia.

Currently, Karen serves as the Chief Operating Officer at “Armenian Progressive Youth” NGO, where he oversees strategic initiatives and program implementation. He has made significant contributions to youth development through his involvement in more than 40 international youth exchanges, training courses, and seminars. These initiatives cover a wide range of topics including youth entrepreneurship, empowerment, active citizenship, diversity, inclusion, and human rights advocacy.

Karen Davtyan's dedication to fostering global connections and empowering young people reflects his passion for creating positive social change. His leadership and expertise continue to impact communities locally and internationally, inspiring the next generation of leaders and advocates for a more inclusive and equitable society.