

Nathan Weber

Board Member of OBESSU

Nathan Weber is a unionist representative and has been engaged in activism for many years. First at a local level at 14 years old with school student unionism, associative and political activism, during his general high school years. Then later with labour unions during since his apprenticeship.

Nathan is a former Co-Secretary General (chairperson) of OBESSU's French member organisation, MNL. He is now 20 years old and was elected a Board Member of the Organising Bureau of European School Student Unions (OBESSU) in 2023. He is based in Paris, France.