

Nina Evardone

Talent Acquisition Expert in International Development, Human Rights and Climate Change, South Pole

Nina Evardone is a dedicated advocate for human rights and climate change, with a specialization in talent acquisition and capacity-building within the international development sector. Her expertise spans various aspects of the Sustainable Development Goals, including work with international multi-development banks, humanitarian and development organizations, and initiatives focused on the environment and climate change. Nina has extensive experience in providing talent solutions, particularly executive search services, for prominent organizations such as Save the Children International and several United Nations agencies, including the World Food Programme (WFP), the International Organization for Migration (IOM), and the United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction (UNDRR). She has also collaborated with World Relief, MEDA Canada, CARE International, Digital Green Washington DC, the Caribbean Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, the African Development Bank, the World Bank, The Global Fund, and climate consulting firms like South Pole Carbon Asset Management.