

Rado Bohinc

Prof. dr. Rado Bohinc president, Euro-Mediterranean University - EMUNI Prof. Dr. Rado Bohinc, the President of EMUNI, is a distinguished expert in comparative business and European law. He is a full professor at the Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Ljubljana (UL FDV), Slovenia, and serves as a principal researcher at the Scientific Research Center in Koper (ZRS), an institution closely associated with EMUNI. His research interests include EU law, comparative business law, corporate governance, and social responsibility. Prof. Bohinc has an extensive publication record, including numerous monographs, which has established him as a leading voice in his field. He is highly sought after as a lecturer, delivering talks at prestigious institutions worldwide. His speaking engagements span the USA, Germany, Spain, Italy, Austria, Czech Republic, Sweden, Norway, Russia, India, Nepal, South Korea, and New Zealand. Additionally, he frequently serves as a keynote speaker at both national and international scientific conferences. Prof. Bohinc's contributions to academia and his influence on the study and practice of law are widely recognized, making him a prominent figure in the global academic community.