

Simon Herteleer

Simon Herteleer is a passionate advocate for human rights, particularly focusing on Education for Sustainable Development (ESD), Sexual and Reproductive Health Rights (SRHR), Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), and youth empowerment. With nearly a decade of experience in the international development and youth sector, he brings a wealth of knowledge and dedication to his work.

Currently, Simon serves as a Monitoring & Evaluation Officer with the World Food Programme, ensuring accountability and effectiveness in humanitarian efforts.