

Tamara Aleksanyan

Head of Monitoring Division (of Strategic Planning and Monitoring Department) of the Ministry of Education, Science, Culture and Sport of the Republic of Armenia

Tamara graduated Armenian State University of Economics and represents the Ministry of Education, Science, Culture and Sport of Armenia; she is a Head of Monitoring Division. Her main duties include monitoring and evaluation of Education sphere strategies and development programs, studying international ranking reports and linking the issues raised in them with national strategical documents and programs, as well as methodological support and guidance to colleagues in field units.

One of her main roles is the preparation of national statistical reports on formal education; she is a member of Technical Cooperation Group on SDG4 of UNESCO Institute for Statistics.

She has started her job at the Ministry as a junior specialist of Finance Analysis Division, and strongly believes that determination, hard work and honest dedication to work always pay off; and that each of us must do our part to make the world a better place.
