

Tuyana Norboeva

Eco-Accord Project Manager

Tuyana Norboeva – environment and sustainable development activist (based in Moscow). In 2018 she graduated with honors bachelor's degree from Buryat State University, Law Department, in 2020 she earned her master's degree with honors from Irkutsk State University on regional international relations law. Tuyana is currently working on her dissertation devoted to the critical examination of environmental governance and chemicals management at Moscow State Law University. She has been taking part in programs for raising awareness and education on environment and sustainable development for general public and youth in Eastern Europe, Caucasus and Central Asia (EECCA). Since 2022 she has been working with Eco-Accord non-governmental organization on information and awareness on chemical safety issues for EECCA region.