

Zamzam Ibrahim

Co-founder Students Organising for Sustainability, Green Jobs Youth Pact Advisor

Zamzam Ibrahim is a British-Somali activist; she has spent the past decade representing students and young people advocating on various causes related to social justice, education, and the environment. As a young climate activist, she co-founded Students Organising for Sustainability UK (SOS-UK), She is the chair of the Muslim Leadership Foundation. In 2019, launched the Climate Education Bill, which calls for mandatory climate education in schools throughout the UK. She's the Former Vice President of the European Students Union (ESU), and the former President of the National Union of Students in the UK (NUSUK). She currently serves as a board member of SOS International and SOSUK, works as a consultant for Julie's Bicycle, amongst various other projects and has been selected as a Youth Advisor on UN Green Jobs Pact for Youth.